

SURAKSHA ZINDAGI KI

NEC Group Press Release

Web: www.nityaelectricals.com

Issued by Corporate Communications

NEC launches a new range of LV Modular MCCs and MV Bus Ducts (NSPB, SPB & IPB) in ELECRAMA 2018

Nitya Electrocontrol Plans to Invest Rs. 200 Cr. In coming five years – Prashant Srivastava, CMD, Nitya Electrocontrol Private Limited.

10th March, 2018: Noida: Nitya Electrocontrols Private Limited Launched a new range of LV Modular MCCs and MV Bus ducts for Transferring, handling and distribution of electric power more efficiently with more safety in ELECRAMA 2018.

Mr Prashant Shrivastava, CMD, Nitya Electrocontrols Pvt. Ltd. Said the products have been simultaneously launched in India and a couple of select market/ Country. These Products are largely deployed worldwide in all Kind of Power Generating Plants, Transmission-Distribution, Oil Refineries, Material handling plants etc. The company enhances its manufacturing facilities at Greater NOIDA. A new plant has been made fully operative at Greater NOIDA six months before the launch. The company is contributing towards Prime Minister's vision to promote Make in India, and doing the Investment of Rs. 200 Cr in coming 5 years' time to generate more employment and clean and green energy.

Mr Shrivastava further said that the company have a very wide customer base in India and abroad like NTPC Ltd., BHEL-all units, Power Grid Corporation Ltd. EIL, MECON, NMDC, NSIC, SAIL, OSIC, Rashtriya Spat Utpadan Nigan Ltd., All State Electricity Boards, Deen Dyal Grameen Vidyut Vitran Yogna, Hospitals, EPC Contracting Company, and all type of Industries etc.

These Products are designed by a team of technically qualified and well-experienced engineers using latest design techniques, software and tools. The company has a team of 115 Nos. well qualified and experienced engineers to handle execution, manufacturing and operations. The company has a separate team for after sales services to support the customers during installation, commissioning and operation at the site as and when required.

NEC has accredited with ISO 9001-2015 and ISO 14001-2015 certification for Quality and Environment Management Systems. Equipment manufactured by us are designed & manufactured with state of the art technology and the entire range is type tested at CPRI/ERDA/ 3rd party lab as per latest national/international standards. Our Panels are type tested up to 100KA for one second short time current withstand at CPRI.

Mr H. S. Panchal – Executive Director, Nitya Electrocontrols Pvt. Ltd. said that New regulations and standards require companies to be more accountable for efficiency and sustainability. The Modular MCC provides world- class technology/ products in India. Withdrawable unit and contact mechanism have arc free power connections and have all functions/ Interlocks for operation and safety. Modules can be interchanged when Panel is charged. / Live. As per Current trends indications, the energy requirement in is set to be double at a rapid pace as demand goes up, Mr Panchal added, significantly with countries committing and seeking to cut down on emissions and energy uses such energy efficient product will play a critical role he said.